THEATRES-CONTINUED

THE OLYMPIA

Mrs. Wallace Reid in "Broken Laws" will be the Olympia Theatre special on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. It deals with the necessity for law observance and respect for the law, particularly as it affects children. It contains the theme of a mother, love and respect for the law. It is a story of two families of a middle west town. What lack of law observance meant to the children of the two families is told in a masterful manner. The picture has many dramatic scenes, none of them overdone. It is a picture of the life of the law, and the children of the law. It is a picture of the life of the law, and the children of the law. It is a picture of the life of the law, and the children of the law.

ry a mother can apply that to herself.

Why, Annie, I think Mary is old enough to go out with young men, perhaps so, but more she can't bid enough to be bit of school, but I hold these lax mothers responsible for the very things of which they complain. I can explain how their girls run entirely too much and too often in the care of boys who are not old enough to be away from their own homes at all. What can they expect? On my way from Mary's house, I met girls not more than 15 years of age, grouped, walking the streets at a hot hour when I was afraid to be out. In other occasions, I saw children all the way from 10 to 15 out, and I wondered to myself where on earth were the mothers of these girls. I was, however, consoled by a little hand, perhaps to keep up with a boy, Mabel, but there is no doubt as to the right sort of mother and home for the girl. In losing her girl and her dark, if they would stop long enough to know that it is too late to look the barn after the horse is gone, I think they would exercise more care.

Good-bye, Mabel.

MALONE FOR REGISTER OF TREASURY

Humors have it that President Calvin Coolidge has about made up his mind to appoint a Negro as Register of the United States Treasury. This news, of course, will be met with a great rush of applicants for the office on the part of politicians and what not.

Among those whose names have been mentioned, is that of E. M. Malone, our fellow townman. We understand that Mr. Malone, who is a business man of our city, is in a receptive mood should this office be offered him at the hands of the President.

Mr. Malone's acquaintance in the business and financial world makes him well qualified for the place. We do not know, however, whether this President has reached a decision in this matter or not. He is taking the liberty to call his attention to Mr. Malone that he may not overlook a good bet in the selection of the proper man for the place.

THE MATRIMONY ELECTION

The Honorable Victor J. Miller has been elected mayor of this city. Many of the colored people voted for him because they had faith in the man, that he would be fair and square, and would do the right thing as mayor of the city toward all citizens, regardless of race, creed, or religion; while others voted for him simply because he was on the Republican ticket. So, here is little doubt that he has received the majority of the vote cast by the Negro voters in the city.

We have no quarrel with those who voted and supported Mr. Miller. They may be just as honest in their action as those of who supported Mr. Igoe. We all are subject to mistakes honestly made. All we hope now is that since these people have put their confidence in Mr. Miller, he will not disappoint them. The ministers of the city, together with some other leaders, have put their seal of approval upon Mr. Miller, and in so doing, a grave responsibility has fallen upon them. They will, therefore, expect Mr. Miller to make good his promise, or "the people perish."

Our opposition to Mr. Miller was based upon our belief in his lack of connection with the Ku Klux Klan as our arch enemy. We know that the ascendancy to power of the Klan means a decrease in our common rights as citizens.

In taking our position, we believed that our course was the best for the colored people of the city at this time. It was our belief that it is our belief now.

Fortunately, Mr. Miller will have the chance to prove to the kind of man he is. "By their fruits, ye shall know them." In fact, we sincerely hope that he will make good, so far as the colored people are concerned. In this, we stand ready to give him our support.

MAKING PROGRESS

We must congratulate the colored voters of the city who dared to get out of the "same old rut," and strike out for new and untrodden paths in a political way, with the hope of bettering their conditions, as was shown in the recent election. The returns in the ward where there was a large Negro vote, show, by a conservative estimate, that more than $900 voted for Mr. Igoe, the Democratic candidate for mayor, aside from a thousand who refused to vote because of the confusion that was created by the issues in the campaign. This shows progress.

Those who have seen automobiles run in the same rut, know that it requires hard steering and more gas to get out of the rut, but once out, they are free to find new paths and make progress. So, we feel, under the circumstances, congratulations are in order.

In getting out of the rut, on the part of the few, the whole race gets a big boost in the eyes and estimation of the general public; because it demonstrates that the colored man, as a voter, was not the thoughtless slave, in a political way, that he has been pictured; but a thoughtful citizen, capable of thinking and voting as other groups and races. There were those who actually thought that the Negro was the most of them, did not care to vote what is called a "split ticket," or that they were afraid that some great calamity would befall them if they dared to do it. Tuesday's election has proved different. The colored masses are beginning to think. They can see that the leaders of the past have been trotting them around in a circle, and getting nowhere. They are proud of the results of last Tuesday's election, because we got something. We got out of the same old rut, and we hope, as time rolls on, we will be free and more free to move and have our being just as other men and races have.

Sure we believe in party organizations. We believe in party regularity, but we do not believe in party discrimination against the best men in the party because of race or religion.

Not aims, not pity, not sympathy; just get out of our sunken, and we will make our way.

The vote is a mighty power. The fellow who is not getting power is not using his vote for all it is worth.

The Klan has brought the fight to us—Negroes, Jews, Catholics and the Greys—we have no alternative.

Trouble is brewing in the Sixth Ward, according to the latest report. Remember, brethren, you are on trial. There are those who are standing at the door just ready to say, "I told you so."

Yes, we all agree now, that politics make strange bed-fellows; as we have seen shifting and changes in the recent campaign.

There seems to be some talk going on the street, to the effect that the St. Louis Argus is being run by a bunch of lawyers because of some seem to take them seriously should take the example of Mayor Kiel, who—have a big dinner and eat up and drink down their differences. Why should we fight and talk out over the other fellows' troubles?

CIVILIAN DEFENSE OF THE MINISTRY

Editor St. Louis Argus:
A recent meeting was held in those parts of the city where the colored people are concentrated, and the subject of "Civilian Defense of the Ministry" was discussed.

The subject of the meeting was the "Civilian Defense of the Ministry." The subject was discussed in the light of the fact that the colored people are being used as cannon fodder in the defense of the ministry.

DELAWARE M. E. CONF. MAKES MANY CHANGES

FREDERICK, Md. April 8.—The thirty-second Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held here last week saw several important and significant changes in its membership and in the representation of the Southern and Southern Methodist churches, over which the white conference had been in session since April 1st.

The vote of 135 to 17, adopted as permanent action the proposal of a committee to admit ministers to the conference at the minimum age of forty instead of forty-five. An attempt to admit laymen to the Annual Conference was killed by a vote of 115 to 25.

Bishop Matthew W. Clark was chosen by the Board of Christian Education at the first Annual Conference which will be held in Pittsburgh, Pa. Bishop James L. Jones, of the Annual Meeting of the body in 1922.

TUSKEGEE, Ala., April 8.—It was announced by Dr. Robert R. Moton, that the Hampton-Tuskegee Fund, which has been in the hands of the Hampton-Tuskegee Fund, will be sold to the Hampton-Tuskegee Fund.

MICHIGAN STATE WARNS NEGROES TO BEWARE OF THE REAL ESTATE SHARKS
LANSING, Mich., April 8.—The people are being warned by the Michigan State War, that the colored people are being used as cannon fodder in the defense of the ministry.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Roland Hayes, the celebrated Negro tenor, received the Spingarn award of the National Association of American Negroes, which is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a colored man in America.

TUBERCULOSIS SOCIETY AIDS NEGRO HEALTH WEEK
In connection with the Annual Negro Health Week, which is being observed throughout the country this week, the health bureau of the Tuberculosis Society of St. Louis has on its schedule a series of lectures, which it is giving at different industrial institutions where large numbers of the race are employed, and at several of the schools.

MALE OFFERS AID TO NEGROES
Michigan's large revenue of good farm land and the Negro problem is making special efforts to have them removed, either through rental or purchase, by the new owners from the South. Business from interested parties will be the result. The State Department will make extensive efforts to aid in this work.

Mr. Campbell says that with only a partial knowledge of the Michigan land and the Negro problem, it is not possible to say whether the removal of the colored people from the South is a good thing or a bad thing. He says that the removal of the colored people from the South is a good thing, but that the removal of the colored people from the South is a bad thing.

DELAWARE HAS FIRST TRIAL BY NEGRO LAWYER

SAN MATEO, Calif., April 8.—Noah Williams, the Negro proprietor of an inn in this city which has a reputation that extends throughout the country, is said to have built his place on a small plot of land, and to have made it a famous inn, and to have made it a famous inn.

SPRINGFIELD HAS FIRST INTER-RACE SERVICES
SPRINGFIELD, Mass. April 8.—The first inter-race church service in this city has ever been held here between the white and colored Baptist churches, and the colored Baptist church, because of the illness of the white pastor, Rev. C. J. Hayes, the colored pastor was invited to conduct the service and to bring the St. Louis church and congregation along. The service made such an impression that arrangements are being made for future inter-race services.
